1. She is Jerry Trump's sister. They are currently estranged. They have not spoken in over 2 years.
2. On one occasion, in the summer of 2002, at a barbeque at her house, Jerry related the story of what happened the night of the murder.
3. Jerry Trump related that Shawana had alerted him to trouble. He then went to the back dock door, didn't see anything and called out "I see you." She recalled that he was laughing about how he bluffed like he used to do when he worked at a camp.
4. Jerry related that he only saw head bobs and told her that he couldn't see faces and couldn't identify the men at the car.
5. He then closed the dock door and slid the latch to lock it while Shawana went to get help.
6. Jerry told her that he was too scared to return and never went back outside.
7. She never heard anything else or discussed it with Jerry.
8. Until she saw the 48 Hours telecast, she was unaware that anyone, including Erickson and Ferguson were charged in the case and that Jerry testified at trial.
9. She didn't see the original airing. Her mother called her and told her. She then went on the Internet and watched the telecast.
10. She stated that she was shocked that her brother Jerry testified since he had told both her and her husband that he had not seen anyone and did not go back outside.
11. She contacted Bill Ferguson and told him what she knew.
